What to Bring and What to Expect on Election Day

Before signing the poll list and casting a ballot, you must present a government-issued photo ID to verify your identity. A valid ID for voting purposes must:

- Include the voter's name, which must conform—not necessary to be identical - to the name on the individual's voter registration record.
- Include a photograph of the individual.
- Except for certain military and veterans documents, include an expiration date that shows the ID current or expired after November 8, 2016.
- Be issued by the State of Indiana or the U.S. Government.

If you are unable or decline to present the photo ID OR a member of the precinct election board determines that your ID does not qualify under state law, a member of the precinct election board will challenge you and you must be offered a provisional ballot.

Both the challenger and the challenged voter must complete the challenged voter's affidavit (PRE-4 form) before the voter may be issued a provisional ballot. After completing the provisional ballot, it is sealed inside the provisional ballot security envelope (PRO-2 form) and the challenged voter completes the affidavit on the PRO-2 form.

A voter casting a provisional ballot due to an ID issue must present a valid, photo ID (one that meets the standards above) to the county election board no later than noon, ten days after the election to have their provisional ballot be counted. Voters with a religious exemption or who are indigent must complete an affidavit at the county election board's office no later than noon, ten days after the election in order for their provisional ballot to be counted.

Fail-Safe Procedures

If your name does not appear on the poll list, you are still allowed to vote if one of the following fail-safe procedures applies to you:

- Certificate of Error – If your name does not appear on the poll list because of an error by the county, then the county must issue a Certificate of Error before you are allowed to cast a regular ballot.
- Written Affirmation – If, at one time, you were registered to vote in this precinct, but your name

Jefferson Ballew to speak at Hudson Lake Mennonite Church

By Esther Lanting
For The Gazette

Jefferson Ballew, Citizen of the Pokagon Band of the Potawatomi will be speaking at Hudson Lake Mennonite on November 11th, at 12/noon to 1:00 p.m. Eastern Time.

Jefferson Ballew belongs to the Bear Clan and is a Citizen of the Pokagon Band of Potawatomi. Jefferson has worked within Indian Country for over 20 years, holding different positions such as Tribal Council elect, Montessori Teacher, Cultural Specialist and coordinated the implementation of federal law to protect sacred and ceremonial lands.

Jefferson works with many of the school districts in both Michigan and Indiana, K-12 and Higher Education institutions to bring cultural awareness to many. Mr. Ballew spoke at the church in 2016 and is back by popular request.

In 2016, he taught about historical context, the Potawatomi understanding of the world, as well as some of their traditions. He also brought along native American regalia.

The community is invited to come for this presentation. Please plan to arrive no later than 11:45 a.m. EST.

Prior to Mr. Ballew's presentation, the 10:00 a.m. (EST) worship service will focus on Lamenting the Doctrine of Discovery, listening to the voices of past and present Indigenous peoples who identify in various ways with Anabaptism and/or Mennonite churches.

Their voices bear testimony to the violence of 500 years of ongoing colonialism, as well as to the resilience of Indigenous peoples today.

The community is invited to join the 10:00 a.m. worship service. Between the worship service and Mr. Ballew's presentation, there will be light refreshments.

Hudson Lake Mennonite Church is located at 7503 N. Walker Road, just north of Chicago Trail.

Pet Blessing: More Than The Cat's Meow

Photo Story

By Esther Lanting

On October 7th, Hudson Lake Mennonite Church held a Blessing of the Pets.

Weather was great for the event which was held outside in the church parking lot.

Altogether fifty-nine (59) pets were blessed – either directly or by picture, seven (7) veterinarians, and twenty-five (25) vet technicians.

In addition to regular attenders of the congregation, six community people brought pets (or pictures) and pictures of pets were sent from Oregon, Wyoming, California,

Ohio, and Pennsylvania.

Each pet received a blessing, a blessing card and a treat. Those in other states received their blessing card and treat by mail if addresses were known.

Animals blessed included cats, dogs, bunnies, birds, chickens, a hedgehog, and fish. Hudson Lake Mennonite Church holds this Blessing of the Animals on even numbered years.

Recipes, Etc.

By Barbara Peterich
For The Gazette

Since the holiday season is right around the corner, I thought I would share with our readers some suggestions for holiday entertaining. This recipe has both a veggie and stuffing, but not separate — TOGETHER.

Holiday Cauliflower

1 medium heat cauliflower or larger
4 T. butter or margarine
1/3 cup flour
2 cups chicken broth and 1 cup milk
S & P
1 package cornbread stuff
1/2 cup butter or margarine, melted
1 cup of chicken broth

about 2 inches in size and cook in chicken broth until just tender. Drain, but save the broth and place the florets in a casserole dish — size depending on how large a cauliflower you choose. Melt butter in a medium saucepan. Stir in flour and cook together a few minutes, while stirring. Remove from heat and blend in broth and milk. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly and simmer until thickened. Pour over cauliflower in casserole dish. Combine the last three ingredients and spoon on top, pressing down if necessary. Bake at 350 degrees F for 30 minutes.

Etc. — You can add broccoli to this dish, or substitute for the cauliflower... also by adding chicken broth instead of water guarantees a more flavorful stuffing.

Halloween at Longshots

Just a portion of the elaborate Halloween decorations at Longshots.

Longshots Bar and Grill at 117 East Michigan Street in New Carlisle is a sight to see during October. Each year, the Stevens family decorates the bar from wall to wall with lights, cobwebs, and spooky figures.

Skeletons greet visitors at the front door, and a group of ghoulish figures occupy one of the tables near the back. On October 27, the bar hosted its annual Halloween party.

Longshots opens at 11:00am Monday through Saturday and at 2:00pm on Sundays. The bar closes at 10:00pm on weeknights and midnight on Friday and Saturday. Dine in for a tasty burger or pizza or call 574-988-0176 for carryout.

The Busy Band Buzz

By Scott Kelley
For The Gazette

On October 20, the New Prairie Marching Cougars competed in ISSMA Regional Competition at Chesterton High School. Once again, our kids delivered an outstanding performance. Not only did this performance achieve yet another New Prairie high score, it also earned a gold rating and qualification for ISSMA Semi-State competition.

The ISSMA marching band competition is divided into two regions, the north and the south. The top ten bands from each region advance to the semi-state level. At semi-state, the top ten of those twenty bands advance on to compete in the state finals.

This is only the fourth year that New Prairie has competed at the open class level. For the first two years, the Marching Cougars competed in the Open Class 'C' division. Then last year ISSMA moved New Prairie to an Open Class 'B' school. Competition in open class marching is very intense, and as a class 'B' band we compete against bands fifty percent larger than ours. But, the "Sound of Cougar Pride" has a commanding presence on the field, and our Marching Cougars have risen to the challenge and proudly represented our school and community. This has been a history setting season for New Prairie in the competitive marching band world. After an amazing indoor percussion season ending with a sixth place finish at the state finals, every competition during the fall season has achieved a record high score for the Marching Cougars. What an achievement for our school and community!

As this article is being written, we are once again anxiously preparing for yet another competition in our ongoing season. The Marching Cougars will be competing in ISSMA Semi-State Competition at Pike High School in Indianapolis on October 27.

If the Marching Cougars achieve a score in the top ten, we will advance on to the ISSMA State Marching Band Finals at Lucas Oil Stadium on November 3. Good Luck Cougars! Play loud and march proud!

no longer appears on the poll list where you are attempting to cast your ballot, and you are willing to sign a written statement (or make an oral affirmation in the presence of the inspector or one of the judges) that you still live at the same address, then you may cast a regular ballot

- Receipt from Voter Registration – If your name does not appear on the poll list, but you have a receipt from a voter registration agency indicating that you applied to register while the registration period was still open (before the last 29 days before the election), and the county voter registration office does not have any record of receiving the application, then you may vote a regular ballot after the information on your receipt is recorded on the poll list and you fill out a voter registration application.

If your name is on the poll list but the name or address listed does not match your current name or address, you may still qualify to vote a regular ballot if one of the following fail-safe procedures applies to you:

- Name Changed - If your name is on the poll list but it has changed (example: due to marriage, divorce or adoption), you may vote a regular ballot if you sign the poll book with the new name or if an electronic poll book is used, signing an affidavit provided by election officials.
- Moved within the precinct - If your name is on the poll list but you have moved within the same precinct, you may vote a regular ballot if you sign the poll book with the new address or if an electronic poll book is used, signing an affidavit provided by election officials.

- Moved but still live in the same county and congressional district – If you moved to another precinct that is still in the same county and congressional district regardless of when you moved, you may vote a regular ballot at your old precinct one last time. You must sign an affidavit provided by local election officials or make an oral affirmation of these facts in the presence of the precinct election board before proceeding to vote.
- Moved within the State of Indiana less than 30 days before the election - If you moved to another precinct in Indiana less than 30 days before the election, you may vote a regular ballot in your old precinct, one last time, by signing an affidavit provided by local election officials.

Should any of the above listed fail-safes to vote a regular ballot not apply to you, then you may vote by provisional ballot.

The challenger (a member of the precinct election board, typically) and the challenged voter must complete the challenged voter's affidavit (PRE-4 form). After being issued the provisional ballot, the challenged voter seals the ballot in the PRO-2 security envelope, and the challenged voter executes the affidavit on the form.

You are to be given instructions concerning your provisional ballot (PRO-9 form), which includes providing testimony at the Election Board hearing to determine if your provisional ballot will be counted.

What's on the Ballot in New Carlisle?

Americans will go to the polls on Tuesday, November 6 for the 2018 midterm elections. While the national focus remains on the bitter battle for control of both houses of Congress, there are several important issues at the local level for voters to consider.

In addition to the 2nd Congressional District race and Indiana Senate race, voters in New Carlisle will seat two members of the Town Council. The New Prairie community will also be faced with one contested race for school board.

Polls are open in Indiana from 6:00am to 6:00pm on Election Day. For information on early voting hours, polling locations, and what's on the ballot in your precinct, visit www.indianavoters.com.

Here is what voters within the Town of New Carlisle will see on their ballot:

State Constitutional Question

Shall Article 10, Section 5 of the Constitution of the State of Indiana be amended to require the General Assembly to adopt balanced budgets for state government that do not exceed estimated revenues unless a supermajority of two-thirds of the members of the House of Representatives and two-thirds of the Senate vote to suspend the requirement?
